Dear Charlie Fuller:

The Philadelphia Condominium Managers Association invites vendors in the multifamily industry to place ads in our 2006 PCMA Resource Guide, which will be distributed in December 2005.

This announcement is sent to vendors selected on the basis of the successful experience of PCMA members. Your firm has been identified by our members as one we can rely on for quality services and materials appropriate to the needs of luxury multifamily properties.

PCMA members consult the Resource Guide as their first source for locating services and materials.

The deadline for payment and ad copy is November 11, 2005. The enclosed response form provides more information.

We appreciate your willingness to place your ad in our book.

Please direct questions concerning the PCMA or its policies to me:
